

NCPO Tournament Announcement

- Tournament players welcome to Noumea Casino
- There are rules we would like to go over with everyone
- You may not speak on your phone at the table at anytime. if you wish to speak on your phone step away from the table or you will get a penalty. You can text at the table if you are not in a hand.
- The yellow line on the table is the betting line if you cross that line with chips in your hand without making your intensions clear all the chips in your hand will be the full bet. Make sure you say what you bet before you cross that line.
- You may not discuss the contents of what may or may not be in your hand anytime during the tournament. If you do you will receive a penalty depending how severe your comment is.
- You may not expose your cards with action pending. If you do you will receive at least a penalty of some description.
- No spectators allowed to stand behind tournament players
- English only during a hand or when a hand is in progress
- Anytime there is an all-in and a call, all cards must be shown face up.
- Large chips must be visible at all times.
- If we happen to break your table or move you to balance tables all chips must be moved in a chip rack, not in your hand.
- Players must be seated before the first card is dealt otherwise your hand will be dead.
